

OLSON FOR CONGRESS COMMITTEE

Dear Friend:

Pete Olson, candidate for United States Congress in Texas' 22nd Congressional District, qualified for the run-off as a result of yesterday's primary election in Texas. As you know, Texas' 22nd Congressional District is one of the most Republican districts in the state (voting 64% for President Bush in 2004) – AND - it represents one of the most promising opportunities for Republicans to win back a congressional seat.

We believe the candidate best equipped to face Congressman Nick Lampson is Pete Olson, and we ask you to join us in supporting his run-off effort.

Olson brings years of public service to the table – he served for nine years as a Naval aviator, receiving numerous commendations. He was ultimately transferred to serve the Joint Chiefs of Staff in the Pentagon and was later assigned to be a Naval Liaison Officer in the US Senate. He continued his public service, working with Senator Phil Gramm and as Senator John Cornyn's Chief of Staff. While he spent time in Washington, his roots remained in Texas.

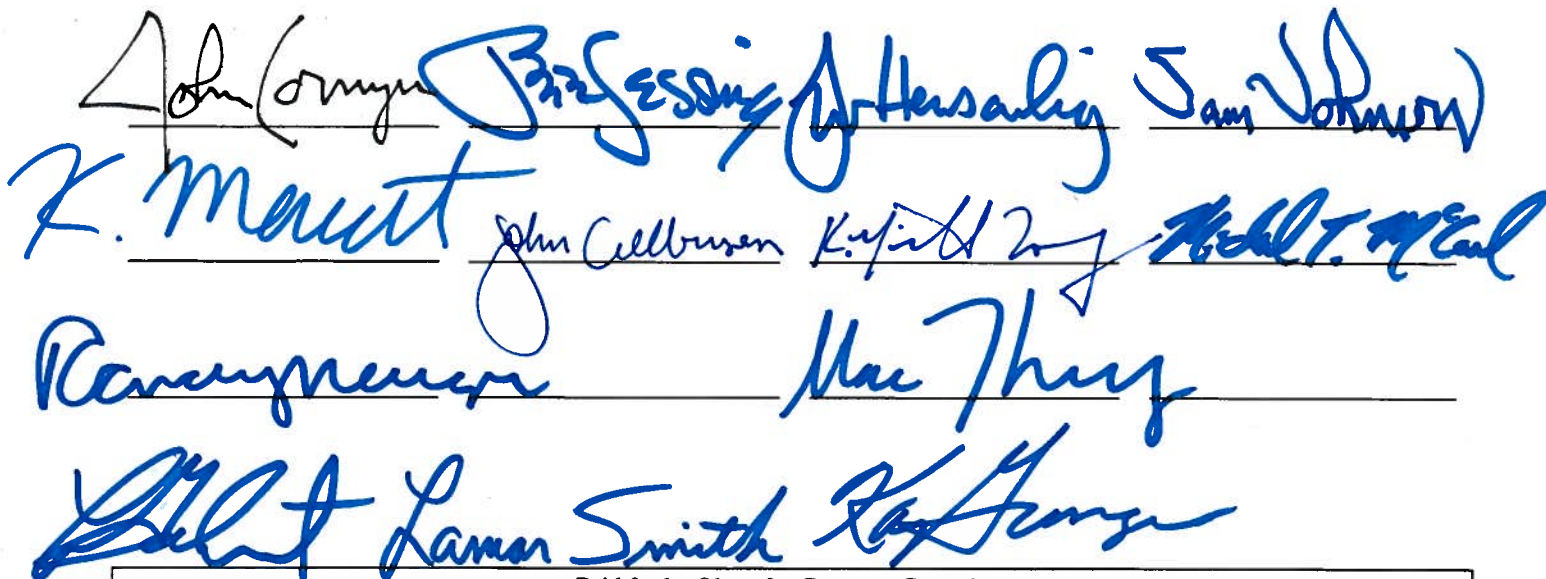

In addition to his military background, Olson is a common sense conservative with a strong sense of business, security, immigration, and life issues. He is philosophically aligned with the district and has the fundraising ability to stay competitive with his democratic opponent.

I hope you will join us in supporting Pete Olson in his runoff bid for the 22nd District. He is well-equipped to go toe-to-toe with the Democrats, both in the election and promoting conservative policies in Washington, D.C. We are asking that you join us in sending the maximum contributions of $5,000 per PACs and/or $2300 per individual to Olson's campaign at the address below. You may also contribute online at www.peteolsonforcongress.com. The run-off is April 8, so time is of the essence.
